

Contents

List of tables.....	i
List of figures	iv
Executive summary	x
1 Introduction.....	1
1.1 Background	1
1.2 Aims and scope	1
1.3 Policies	2
1.4 Links with other plans	3
1.5 Involving others	8
1.6 Scale and structure of this document	20
2 Regional overview	24
2.1 Definition and extent of Thames region	26
2.2 Topography	28
2.3 Geology and hydrogeology	23
2.4 Fluvial geomorphology	31
2.5 Soils	34
2.6 Land use and land management	36
2.7 Hydrology	39
2.8 Natural and historic environment	95
2.9 Communities and the local economy	109
3 Current flood risks and management	111
3.1 History of flooding	111
3.2 Sources and probability of flooding	116
3.3 Consequences of flooding	125
3.4 Summary of flood risk	175
3.5 Existing flood risk management	179
4 Future changes.....	201
4.1 Introduction	201
4.2 Future scenarios	202
4.3 Assessment of the future flood risk	213
4.4 Flood risk at key locations	257
5 CFMP objectives.....	259
5.1 Introduction	259
5.2 CFMP opportunities and constraints	259
5.3 CFMP objectives	267

6	Policy appraisal	271
6.1	Introduction	271
6.2	Policies for this CFMP	272
6.3	Policy justification	314
6.4	Uncertainties	637
7	Delivering the CFMP.....	646
7.1	Action Plans	646
7.2	Consequences of our policies	718
7.3	Monitoring, review and evaluation	721
	Glossary of terms	722
	List of abbreviations	746
	References	748
	Bibliography.....	751

Appendix A - Responsibilities for Flood Risk Management and associated activities

Appendix B – Environmental report and appropriate assessment

Appendix C – Consultation information

Appendix D – Policy appraisal tables

Appendix E – SSSI hydrological management requirements

Appendix F – Thames and Lee BSM and MDSF (further information)

Appendix G – Landscape and landuse